01 new case file were opened this month

A new complaint file on corruption and fraud was opened this month. The complainant reported the administration of the government technical school Tayim in Bafoussam for acts of corruption and fraud. According to him, he was asked to pay an extra global sum amounting to 47,000 francs cfa as PTA levies and examination fees which he paid but the receipts given to him did not carry the total sum of the money he paid. Investigations are ongoing as AC intends to recruit more parents with the same complaint.

The distribution of brochures and pasting of posters continued to be the major activity carried out this month in a bid to recruit more victims of corruption. 120 posters were pasted and 41 brochures distributed around CAMAIR, the Mfoundi market and its environs in Yaoundé. .

Case follow-up this month continued on the corruption case involving many counts with about three hundred victims deposited at the court of First Instance in the month of August 2017. The lawyer handling the case met with the Procureur General of the Court of Appeal to pose the problem of the non-advancement of the case file since it was deposited. The PG requested that the submission of incompetence made by the examining magistrate of the First Instance Court
