General

The AC hotline phone registered 38 calls this month of August with a total of 29 complaints. 21 complaints on corruption and corruption related offenses and 8 non corruption related offenses.

The AC volunteers made several investigative missions on the field following complaints received through the hotline phones and on the field.

Three (03) new case files opened this month

A new case file on bribery and corruption was opened this month. The complainant reported an individual for logging wood illegally after paying 5.500.000 million F CFA to the state prosecutor of Mundemba as bribe to consent to his illegal exploitation of wood. Investigations are ongoing in the case.

Another new case file on bribery was opened this month. A student complained against a secretary of the University of Yaoundé I who solicited and received 50,000 FCFA from him as bribe before giving him his attestation. When contacted, the university authorities promised to look into the matter.

Another new bribery and corruption case file was opened this month. The president of the ACROPOLE bakery syndicate complained he was promised 150,000 F CFA by the president of the ACROPOLE Group of Bakeries to close his eyes to the low pay and miserable working conditions of bakery workers. Investigations are ongoing.

Another case file on bribery was opened this month. The victim complained against the mortuary attendant of the district hospital of Ombessa who solicited 30,000 F CFA more from him after he had paid the standard fee. The chief medical officer of the Ombessa district hospital has promised to verify the complaint and treat the matter.

The distribution of brochures and pasting of posters remained the major activities carried out this month in order to recruit victims of corruption. Posters were pasted and brochures distributed in corruption hotspots like the ministry of finance and its environs, the Essos, Etoudi, Mokolo and Central Markets, Province and Nkoabang for a change.

Case follow-up this month continues with the old court case of motor bike riders against the head of the Nkolbisson municipal storeroom still at the level of hearings in the high court in Yaounde. The case was adjourned again for an extended period and promised to be thrown out of court if the plaintiffs like the defendant continue to miss court sessions. The plaintiffs are discouraged and giving up on the case.

AC Hotline Phone

The Center region had the highest number of calls with 64%, more than half of the total calls. Secondly, the Littoral region with 15% of calls then followed by the South West region with 6% of calls. The North West, the West, North, South and East regions all had 3% each of calls.
Email/postal complaints
One complaint with three counts of bribery, corruption and illegal logging was received through the email address.

Investigations
Investigations were carried out on a new case file on bribery and corruption opened this month. The complainant reported an individual for logging wood illegally after paying 5,500,000 million FCFA to the state prosecutor of Mundemba as bribe to allow him continue exploiting the wood. AC’s investigation is unveiling a chain where they are many other people involved besides the state prosecutor that have received bribes to consent to this illegal logging action. Further investigations are still being carried out in the case.

Investigations in the education corruption case opened this month portrayed the negligence with which our educational systems are handled. Every person can make a disastrous decision and get away with it as is the case with the secretary of the University of Yaoundé I (Ngoa Ekelle) She claimed she solicited 50,000 FCFA from the victim because the student had not come for his attestation since finishing his degree thereby rendering the task of searching for degrees in his promotion more difficult. In effect, there is no law or decision prescribing the time limit for the collection of attestations for graduates after the graduation. The university authorities promised AC to look into the matter swiftly and develop a concise pattern for future similar cases.

Investigations were also carried out in an attempted bribery and corruption case concerning the employment of youths in the private sector. The case was forwarded to AC by the president of the ACROPOLE (a branch of the pastry and bakery workers association) workers trade union. He complained he was promised 150,000 FCFA as bribe by the president of the ACROPOLE Group of Bakeries not to make public the very low pay and miserable working conditions of bakery workers which was against the law. In point of fact, Article 1 of Decree N° 2014/2217/PM of 24 July 2014 revaluing the guaranteed minimum wage fixed the minimum wage of all workers at 36,270 francs CFA and nothing below that which is not the case of the ACROPOLE bakery workers. The bribery complaint is still being investigated.

Intervention and investigations were also necessary for a bribery case opened this month. The victim complained against the mortuary attendant of the district hospital of Ombessa who solicited 30,000 francs CFA more from him as bribe after he had paid the standard fee of 25,000 francs CFA for two days to keep a corpse in the mortuary. According to the complainant, the mortuary attendant claimed to be asking for the money so it can permit him work on Saturday which is a non working day for him. The chief medical officer of the Ombessa district hospital was contacted and he promised to verify the complaint and treat the matter.
Legal follow-up
Case follow-up this month continues with the old court case of motor bike riders against the head of the Nkolbisson municipal storeroom still at the level of hearings in the high court in Yaounde. The case was adjourned again for an extended period and promised to be thrown out of court if the plaintiffs like the defendant continue to miss court sessions. The plaintiffs are discouraged and giving up on the case.

Health Corruption Hotline
The health corruption hotline received 15 calls this month and registered no complaint. The lack of field activities is the reason behind this decrease of calls and lack of complaints. The data from the calls has been analyzed as is represented below

This month of July 2015, 82% of calls were responsive while just 18% of calls were non-responsive.

Gender
56% of calls this month of July came from the male gender while 44% came from the female gender.
Age range of callers

This month of July 2015, the youth age-range dominated with 56% of calls, followed by the adult age-range which put in 33% and lastly the elderly with 11%.
Regional representation

The North West region has the highest calls this month representing 38%, followed by the Littoral and the Adamawa regions representing 25% each of calls and lastly, the South West region which has a 12% representation. The Centre region which did participate most of the time was absent as well as other provinces.
