

ANTI-CORRUPTION ORGANISATIONOctober 2016 Report*Highlights

- Two (02) new complaint files opened this month
- AC hotline received 24 calls this month
- Health Corruption hotline received 11 calls this month

General

The AC hotline phone received 24 calls this month of October registering (5) seven corruption and corruption related offences as well as (6) six non corruption complaints.

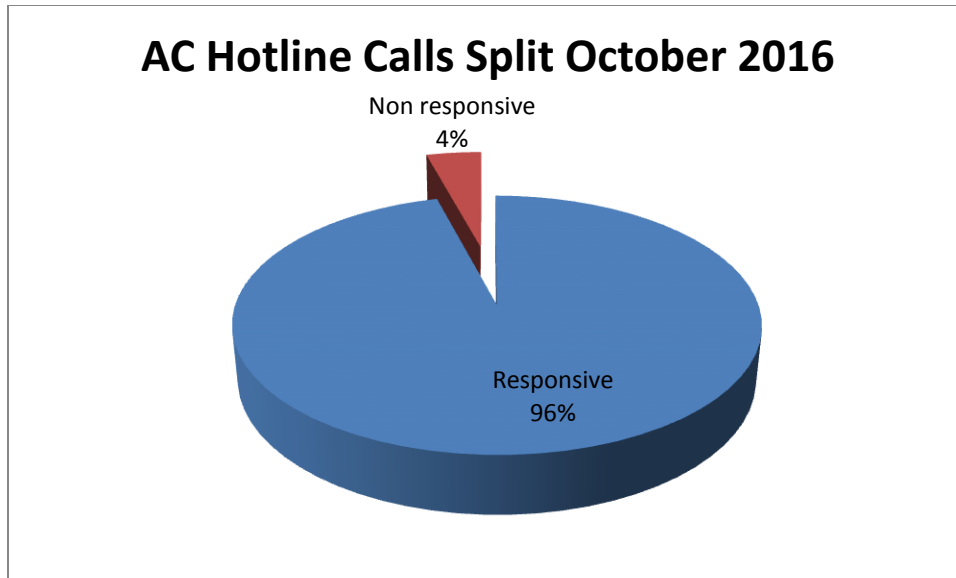

Two (02) new case files were opened this month

A new case file on bribery was opened this month. The complainant in a bid to seek bail for an inmate awaiting trial in the Buea central prison was solicited bribe from by the magistrate presiding over the case. AC-Cameroon plans to file an official letter of complaint to the Higher Judicial Council, the organ in Cameroon which is charged in hearing complaints against magistrates and deciding their sort.

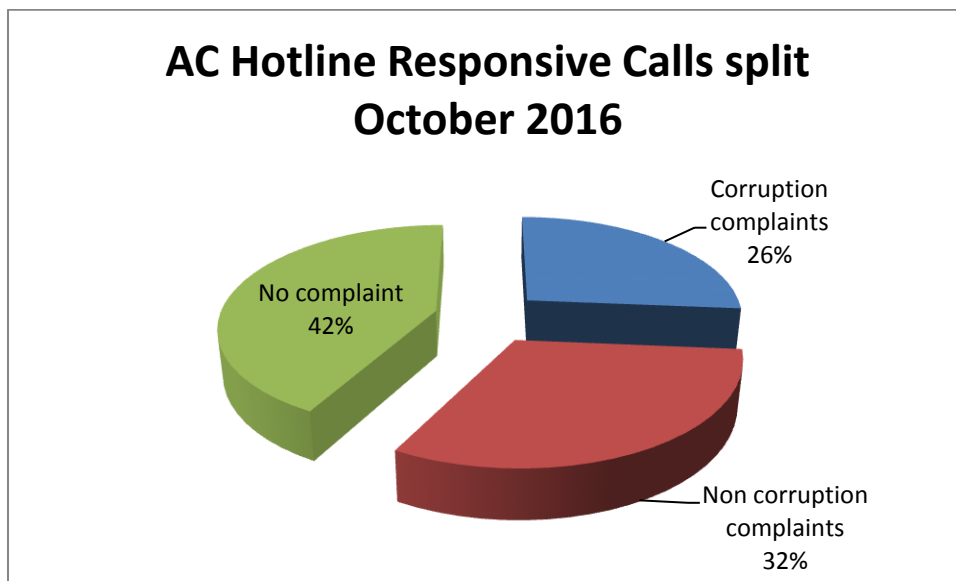

Another new case file on many counts of bribery involving about three hundred victims was opened this month. Operators from the informal sector in the Mokolo market area reported the commissioner of police of the 2nd police district in Mokolo for perpetrating acts of bribery, extortion, oppression, illegal arrest and detention, torture and false pretense. Preliminary investigations are currently going on. AC plans to use a bailiff declaration that will materialize evidence for the case and send to court.

AC Hotline Phone

The AC hotline phone registered 24 calls this month of August 2016 with 5 corruption and corruption assimilated offences and 6 non-corruption related complaints. The calls have been analyzed and represented on charts as seen below.

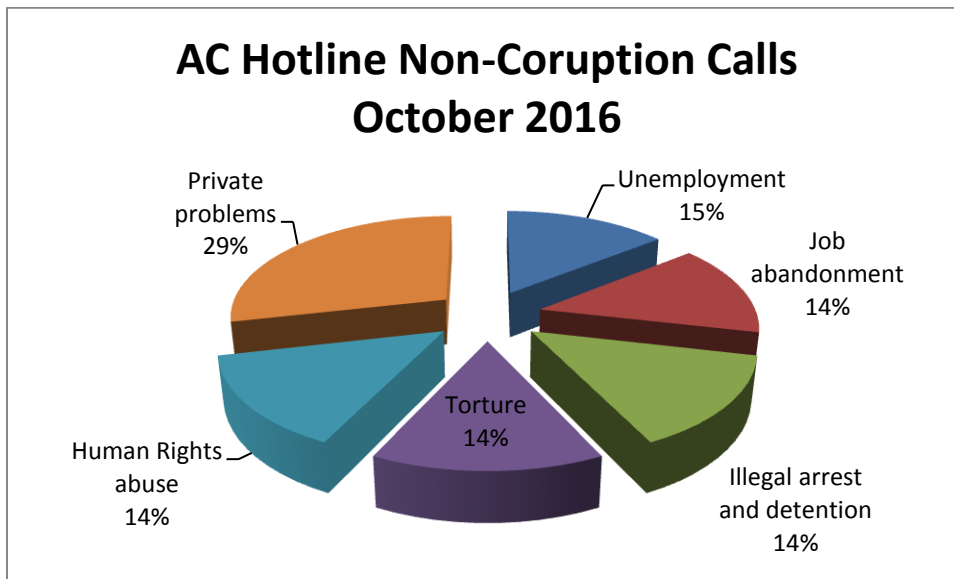

96% of calls this month were responsive while 4% of calls were non responsive

Calls with no complaints were the highest this month representing 42% of responsive calls, followed by non corruption complaints with 32% and then corruption complaints with 26%

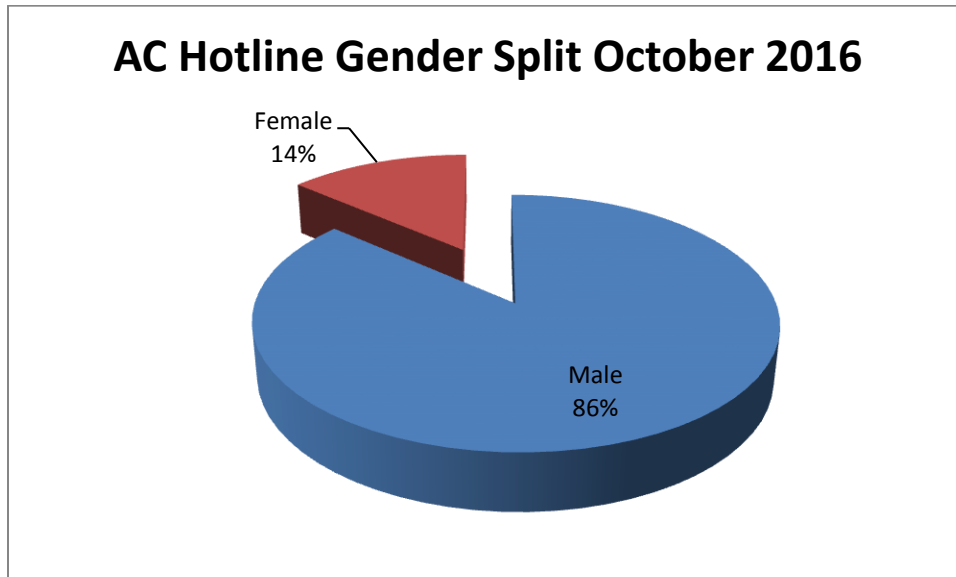

Bribery complaints represent 67% of total corruption complaints, followed by complaints of oppression with 17% and lastly complaints of extortion with 16%.

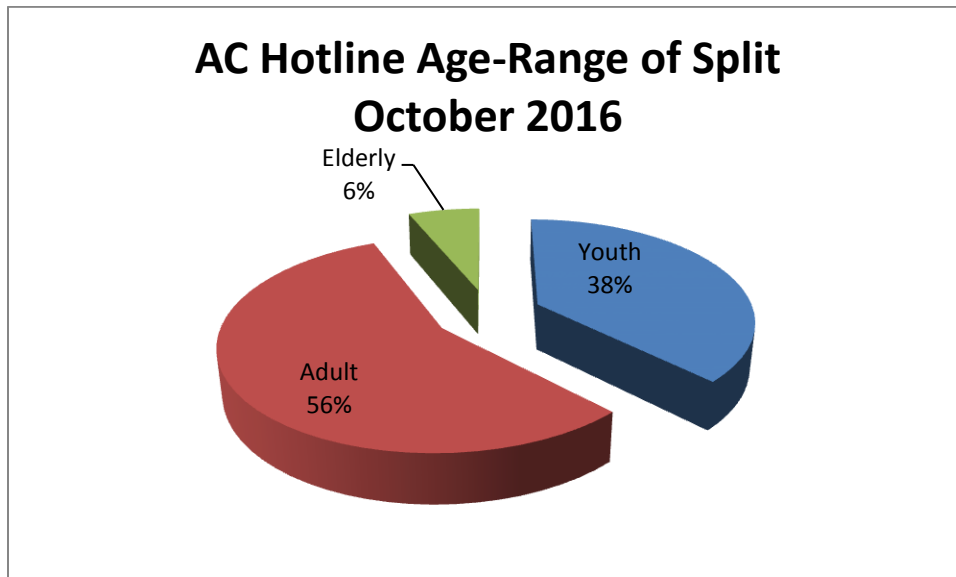

Callers with private problems top the list of non corruption complaints with 29%, followed by complaints of unemployment with 15%, then job abandonment, illegal arrest and detention, torture and human rights abuses with 14% each

Gender

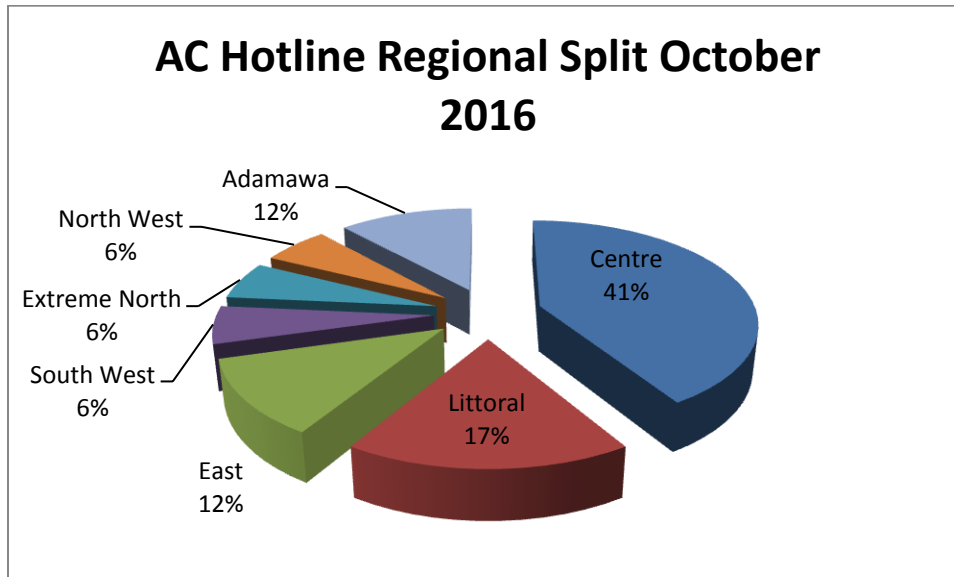

The male gender had 86% of the total calls while the female gender had 14%

Age Range of Callers

The adult age range had the highest calls this month representing 56%, followed by the youth age range with 38% and lastly, the elderly with 6%.

Regional Representation

The Centre region had the highest number of calls this month of October representing 41%, followed by the Littoral region with 17%, the East and the Adamawa with 12% each and, the Extreme North, South West and North West regions with 6% each.

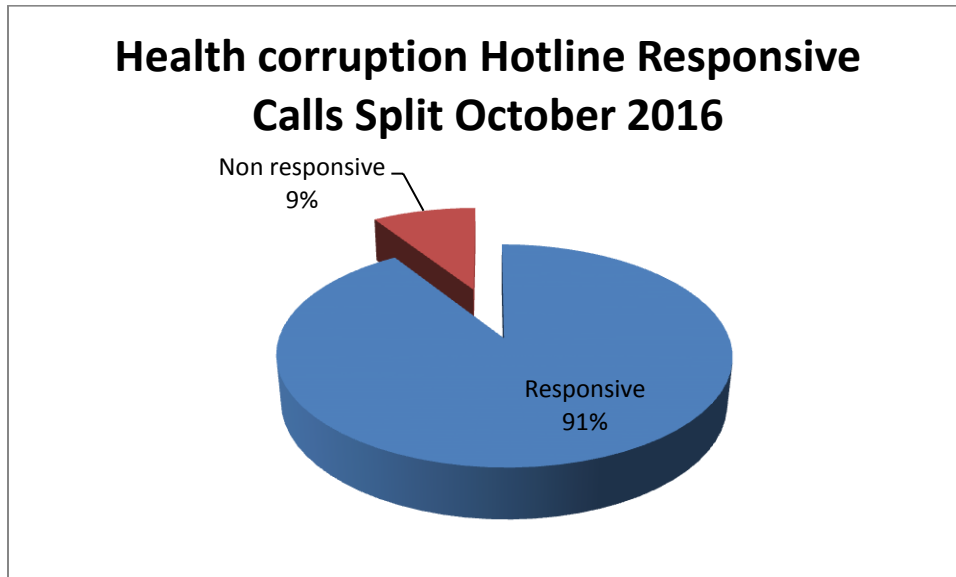

Investigations

A new case file on bribery was opened this month. The complainant in a bid to seek bail for an inmate awaiting trial in the Buea central prison was solicited bribe from by the magistrate presiding over the case. AC-Cameroon plans to file an official letter of complaint to the Higher Judicial Council, the organ in Cameroon which is charged in hearing complaints against magistrates and deciding their sort.

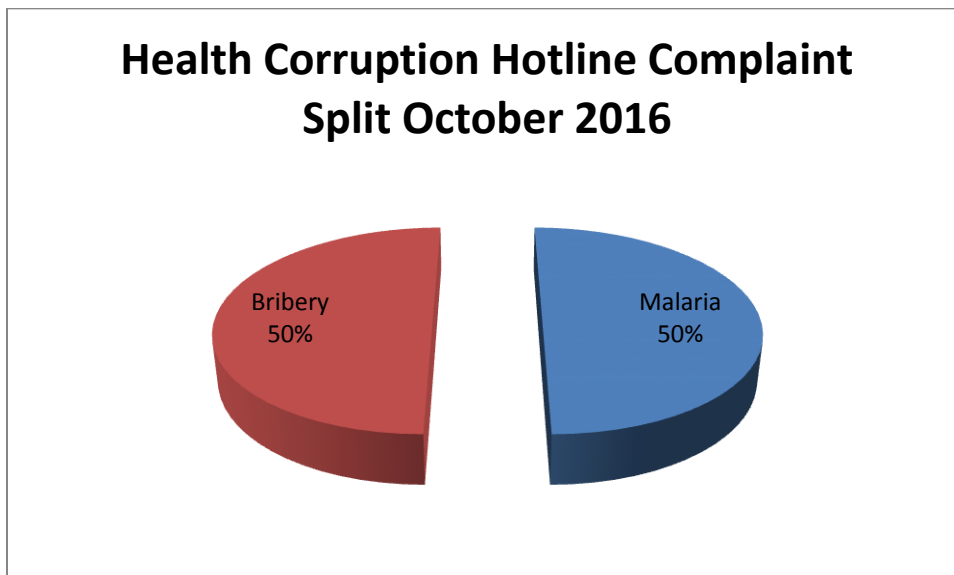

Another new case file on many counts of bribery involving about three hundred victims was opened this month. Operators from the informal sector in the Mokolo market area reported the commissioner of police of the 2nd police district in Mokolo for perpetrating acts of bribery, extortion, oppression, illegal arrest and detention, torture and false pretense. Preliminary investigations are currently going on. AC plans to use a bailiff declaration that will materialize evidence for the case and send to court.

Health Corruption Hotline

The Health Corruption hotline received 11 calls this month of October registering two complaints. One on the sale of subsidized malaria treatment and the other was regarding bribery. Data from the calls has been analyzed as is represented on charts below.

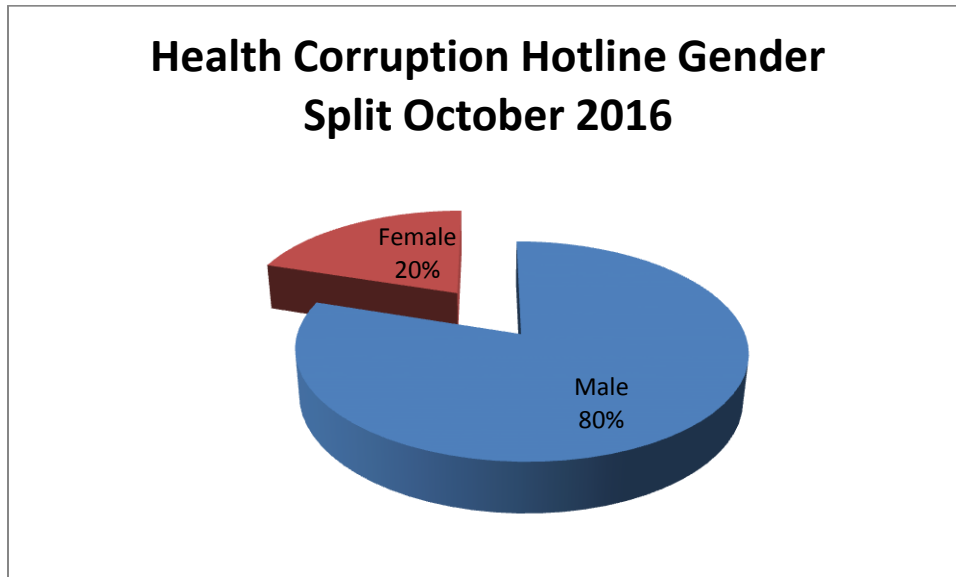

91% of calls that came in through the health corruption hotline phone were responsive while 9% of calls were unresponsive

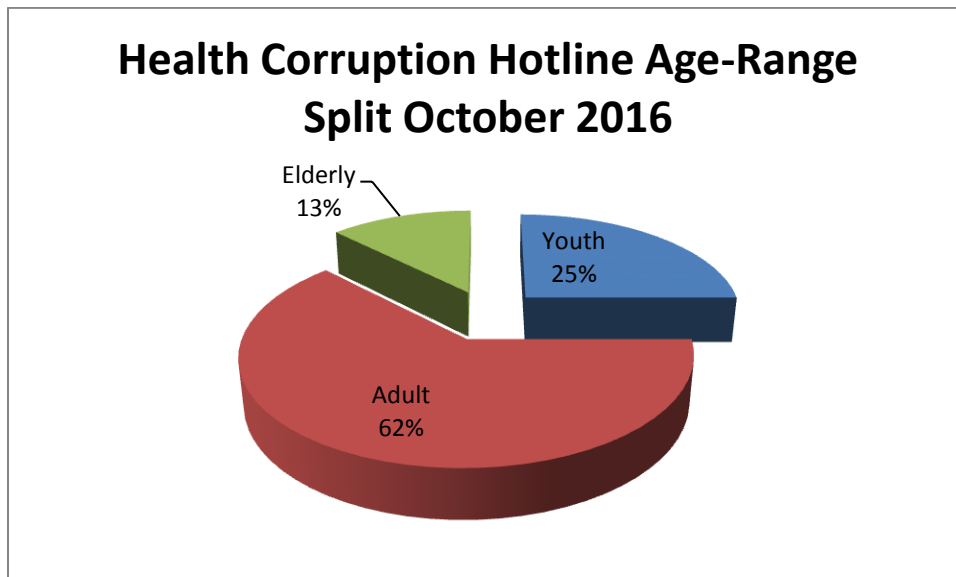

This month of October 2016, complaints against the sale of malaria treatments were 50% while other complaints regarding bribery were at 50%

Gender

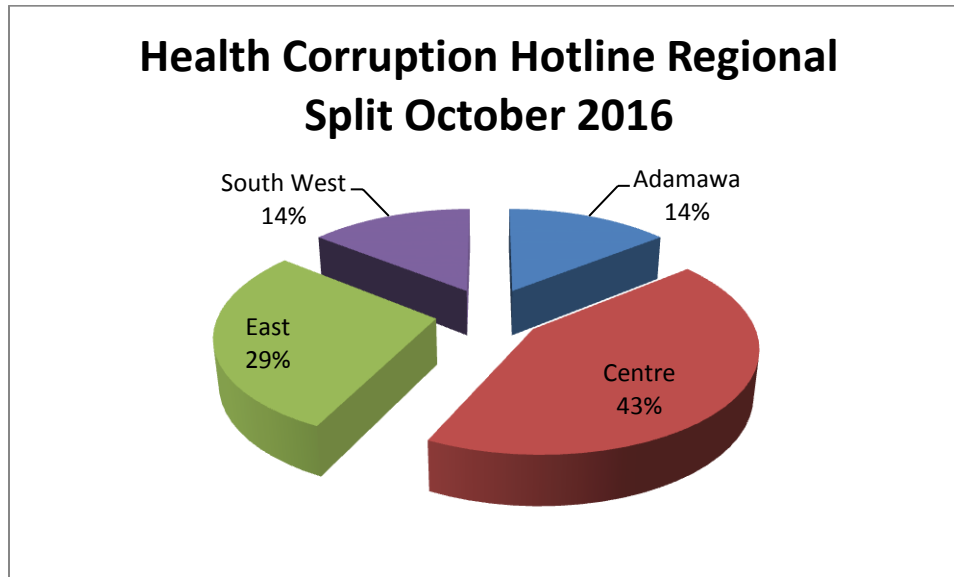

80% of Health Corruption callers were the male gender while 20% were the female gendered.

Age Range of Callers

The adult age range participated with the highest number of calls this month of October representing 62% of total calls, followed by the youth age range with 25% and lastly, the elderly age range with 13%.

Regional Representation

The Centre region had the highest number of calls representing 43% of total calls, followed by the East region with 29%, then the Adamawa and South West region with 14% each

Finance

AC received funds this month from NEU FOUNDATION

| Amount in Francs CFA | Use | Details | Amount in USD |
|----------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------|---------------|
| | AC Hotline | 24 calls received | |
| | HC Hotline | 11 calls received | |
| | Investigations | | |
| | Legal | 02 case follow-up | |
| 0 | Media | 0 | |
| | Management | Co-ordination | |
| | Office | 0 | |
| | TOTAL Expenditure October 2016 | | |

Donor Financial Report October 2016

| Amount in FCFA | Donor | Month | Amount in USD |
|----------------|----------------|-----------------|---------------|
| | NEU FOUNDATION | Used in October | |