- AC hotline received 15 calls this month
- Health Corruption hotline received 6 calls this month
- One (01) new complaint file opened this month

General

The AC hotline phone received 15 calls in February 2018 with one (01) corruption complaint, two non-corruption complaints were also registered.

One (01) new case file was opened this month

A new case file on bribery and corruption was opened this month. The complainant, a professional driver complained that he was kept waiting for hours and his car papers withheld by gendarmes at Bamougoum in the West region because he refused to pay bribe. He said they checked all his documents but when they could not find any fault, he was asked to pay a fee that will authorize him to use that road. AC is keeping contact with him in order to use his consciousness on the fight against corruption to catch other corrupt law enforcement officers on highways intending to demand for bribe.

Case follow-up continued this month on the corruption case involving many counts with about three hundred victims deposited at the court of First Instance in the month of August 2017. The follow-up lawyer had written to the prosecutor demanding the case file be transmitted to the president of the court of appeal as requested and presently awaiting the response of this new step.

Investigations

AC is working with a professional driver who was a victim of corruption along the Bamougoum highway road in the hands of some gendarmes. The complainant, a professional driver complained that he was kept waiting for hours and his car papers withheld by some gendarmes because he refused to pay bribe. They withheld his car papers forcing him to stay on the spot for close to an hour and he ended up paying a 1,000 frs before his car documents were returned to him. He said they checked all his documents but when they could not find any fault, he was asked to pay a fee that will authorize him to use that road.

AC intends to use his consciousness on the fight against corruption to catch other corrupt law enforcement officers on highways intending to demand for bribe.

The case file on education corruption opened last month where a parent reported the school administration of GSS Nkolbikon in Bertoua for acts of corruption involving extortion, undue demand and fraud has been put on hold because the victim has refused to collaborate with AC due to fear of reprisal. He said his son maybe targeted and has refused to send the necessary evidence that will have helped AC to forge ahead with investigations. The school is under AC's investigations.

Investigations are still ongoing on the case file on misappropriation of public funds opened last month regarding workers at the CAMPOST.
